Ausangate Trek

06 D – 05 N

Day 01: Cusco – Tinki – Upis

The trekking of Ausangate Trekking, starts very early we leave the city of Cusco by public transport, and we drive along the road Cusco - Puerto Maldonado in the direction of Tinki (3,800m). On the way we pass through Urcos, where we can see a beautiful lagoon with the same name, we continue to Ccatca, an agricultural and livestock community where we can appreciate the spectacular views of the region and finally cross Ocongate, capital of the district with the same name and only half an hour away from our destination.

After an approximate 4 hours by car, we arrive at Tinki, where we meet our muleteers and horses. We start our hike starting a slight climb that crosses the puna (dry, high area with little vegetation) and then arrive at our lunch place after a three-hour walk. From here we already have beautiful views of the sacred peak of the Nevado Ausangate (6.372m / 20900 ft). After lunch, we continued walking for another hour and a half to reach our camp in Upis at 4,400m / 14432 ft. From this point, we can appreciate fabulous views of all the snow peaks in the area. We camped and dined directly in front of Ausangate.

Meals Included: Lunch & Dinner

Day 02: Upis - Arapa Pass - Pucacocha – Ausangatecocha

After breakfast, we continue our trek ascending for two hours to reach the Arapa pass (4.850m / 15908ft). We descend to our lunch point, crossing an area of hawks, vizcachas or Andean rodents. This area also has three beautiful lakes with shades of red, green and turquoise colors (Pukacocha, HatunPukacocha and Gomerqocha) and spectacular views of the surrounding snow peaks. After lunch, we continue a long and slow climb that will take us, after approximately two hours, to the second mountain pass, Abra de Apachata (4.900m / 16072ft), from which we descend, for another half hour, to our Camp in Ausangatecocha (4.440m / 14563ft).

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Day 03: Ausangatecocha - Hatunpampa

Today, we leave early to climb for two hours towards the third pass of the mountain, the Abra de Palomani (5,140 m.). This is the highest part of the entire walk, from which we descend for another 2 hours through an area of llamas, alpacas and vizcachas.

From here we follow an uphill path until it takes us to our camp in Hatunpampa. Throughout this easy 3 hour climb we may have the opportunity to observe llamas, alpacas, and maybe even pumas. Let's camp and dine in this place.

Day 04: Hatunpampa - Jampa Pass - Q'omercocha

From the camp we will start the ascent for about 2 hrs + 30 min until we reach Jampa Pass (5,074 m.), Where we can have the opportunity to see the Andean vicuña and the beautiful mountains that follow each of our steps . From here we descend to the Q'omercocha lagoon where our camp will be and spend the night in this place.

Optional: If you want to spend the night in the Pachaspata camp next to the mountains, such as: Pucapunta, Maria Huamanticlla, Mariposa, Caracol. Indicate at Hatunpampa camp breakfast.

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Day 05: Q'omercocha - Pacchanta

To reward the effort of the Ausangate Trekking, we will have the Hot Springs to enjoy. We will descend to the town of Pacchanta, a town with stories, cultures and base of our operations. The population of Pacchanta is one of the villages that lives from the Ariculture (potato cultivation) and livestock (raising alpacas, llamas).
