14 Days - 13 Nights

Rio de Janeiro - Copacabana - Ipanema - Iguazu - Lima - Cusco - Rainbow Mountain - Machupicchu

01 Day: International arrival in Rio de Janeiro

Assistance on your arrival in Rio de Janeiro and transfer to your selected hotel. Free time to rest and prepare for starting your trip around this unusual city and magical country.

Meals Included: None

02 Day: Sugar Loaf Mountain - Copacabana - Ipanema

In the morning we will visit the most famous landmark of Rio de Janeiro: the rock peak known as "Sugar Loaf", which dominates the city at 394 meters above the harbor. It is located on a point of land that projects out into the bay and is connected to the city by a low strip of land. You can take the cable car from Praça General Tibúrcio and climb to the top of Morro da Urca, a lower peak from which a second cable car takes you to the top of the Sugar Loaf Mountain. From here, it is possible to see the entire mountainous coast that surrounds the bay and its islands. Su Cara de Cão are three forts, of which the 16th-century and star-shaped Fortaleza São João is open to the public and is a real treat for tourists. The walking tour is free and is a great idea to admire the city skyline and at the same time escape the traditional tourist routes.

Lunch with no price: Stop for a quick lunch in one of the many restaurants per kilo in Rio, where you can satiate yourself without problems by spending a little.

Copacabana, Ipanema, Leblon, Botanical Garden: In the afternoon it is difficult to resist the beautiful sandy beach of Copacabana, which stretches for four kilometers along an entire side of the city center. A few steps from the beaches are Avenida Atlântica, Avenida Nossa Senhora de Copacabana, and the nearby smaller streets where you will find interesting centuries-old buildings, elegant hotels, restaurants and cafés. The undisputed monarch of the area, and of Rio's hotels, is the famous Copacabana Palace, built in 1920 and now protected as a national monument.

Continuing beyond the Copacabana beaches, you will find those of Ipanema and Leblon, separated by the Jardim de Alá Canal, which drains the Lagoa Rodrigo de Freitas lagoon. On the promenade there are large hotels, cafés and restaurants. Lagoa Rodrigo de Freitas beach is lined with parks and sports clubs, and its waters are popular for regattas and other water sports. On the west side of the lagoon, the Botanical Garden has more than 5,000 species of plants from all over the world. In the late afternoon, if it is Carnival time, we advise you to admire the parade along the Sambodromo route.

Dinner not include: Since you are on the coast, choose a fine restaurant that offers a spectacular seafood menu.

Meals Included: Breakfast

03 Day: Christ the Redeemer - Tijuca National Park

a visit to the Cristo Redentor, the gigantic statue of Christ that dominates the city from the 709 meters high peak of Corcovado and is one of the two symbols of Rio together with the Sugar Loaf. Erected between 1922 and 1931, this Art Deco-style statue was created by the Polish-French sculptor Paul Landowski in reinforced concrete and soapstone. The figure is 30 meters high and within the eight meters of height of the base there is a chapel, where it is not uncommon to find weddings and baptisms that take place at that time. From the statue you will have an exceptional view of the beaches and Rio. The Corcovado Train takes tourists, through a rack railway and a 3.8 km route, from Rua do Cosme Velho to the statue at the top of the mountain, passing through a piece of the Tijuca National Park. The ride takes about 20 minutes and runs every 20 minutes, with a capacity of 540 passengers per hour. Due to this limited capacity, waiting at the entrance can take several hours. The line operates from 8:30 to 18:30.

Tijuca National Park: In the afternoon take a walk in the rainforest in the Tijuca National Park, or stroll through the palm trees of the Botanical Garden. In fact, with its 33 square km that make it one of the largest urban forests in the world, the Tijuca National Park, located next to Rio de Janeiro (the only city in the world to have a rainforest within its urban borders) and therefore easily visited, it covers a large area of a predominantly mountainous landscape. Iguanas, howler monkeys, snakes and many different types of birds live a short distance from Rio's crowded neighborhoods. Visitors can hike to Rio's highest peak, Pico da Tijuca, to enjoy sweeping views of Guanabara bay and the city below. The other main attractions of the park include the Gabriela waterfall, with a small natural swimming pool, and the Cascatinha Taunay, located near the park entrance

The peak of Huayna Picchu is about 2,720 meters ( 8,920 ft ) above sea level, or about 360 meters ( 1,180 ft ) higher than Machu Picchu. According to local guides, the top of the mountain was the residence for the high priest and the local virgins.

The Temple of the Moon , one of the three major temples in the Machu Picchu area, is nestled on the side of the mountain and is situated at an elevation lower than Machu Picchu. Adjacent to the Temple of the Moon is the Great Cavern, another sacred temple with fine masonry.
